

Where Children Learn to Grieve and Heal

CAMP ERIN® Montreal

Camp Erin® is the largest network of free bereavement camps in North America designed for children and teens ages 6-17 who have experienced the death of someone close to them.

Camp Erin® is free of charge for all campers. Led by grief professionals and trained volunteers, Camp Erin® Montreal will provide a unique opportunity for peer bonding between children and teens facing a similar life circumstance. This weekend-long experience is filled with traditional, fun camp activities combined with grief education and emotional support.

The Sylvan Adams YM-YWHA and the Harry Bronfman Y Country Camp are partnering to make Camp Erin® Montreal an outstanding camp experience.

TESTIMONIAL

"It helped me feel like I'm not different. Now I feel like it's not just me who's sad, mad and confused. I feel like there are people in the world like me who have lost a loved one in their family. I don't feel alone anymore."
- Camp Erin Montreal 2017 camper, age 10

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION

June 30, 2018

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Youth ages 6-17 who have experienced the death of someone close to them. Since children experience grief in their own unique way, our campers may be at different stages of the bereavement process. Upon receipt of the application, you will be contacted by our staff for an interview that will help us meet each individual camper's needs and ensure appropriateness for this specialized camp prior to final registration.
